

Task 3: Project Presentation (10 points)

Please provide a verbal 5 minute description of your project. It should contain a brief description of the schema, the architecture, and utility. You can provide a visual representation such as a power point slide that describes your system and schema. You need to provide a demonstration of the front end. It is important that you be able to describe and demonstrate your project succinctly so please do not exceed the time limit.